DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Species 3, Claims 1-5, and 7-8 in the reply filed on 6/5/2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim 6 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 6/5/2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1754

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Newman US 6299812.

Newman teaches a spun fiber made of 96% nanotubes having a diameter in the range of 0.66 to 0.9 nm in diameter (Column 2 and 3), wherein the fiber forms a winding on a mandrel (Figure 2 Item 58). Newman further teaches that the fiber can be formed into a woven article (Column 6, Lines 55-67).

Newman doesn't expressly state that the nanotubes are single-walled carbon nanotubes. However, the nanotubes having diameters within the range of 0.66 and 0.9 nm are inherently single-walled nanotubes. Therefore the nanotubes used in the fiber of Newman that have diameters between 0.66 and 0.9 nm are single-walled carbon nanotubes.

Newman doesn't expressly state that the fiber swells by less than about 10% in diameter when immersed in water. However, it appears that there is no difference between the fiber of Newman and the claimed invention. Further, the claiming of a new use, new function or unknown property which is inherently present in the prior art does not necessarily make the claim patentable. In re Best, 562 F.2d 1252, 1254, 195 USPQ 430, 433 (CCPA 1977).

Art Unit: 1754

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Liu et al. ("Fullerene Pipes", Science, Vol. 280, May 1998).

Liu teaches single-wall fullerene nanotubes, wherein each nanotube is a pipe or fiber containing no binding agent or carbonaceous impurities (Page 1253).
